(iii) after the first proviso, the following proviso shall be inserted, namely:—

“Provided further that claim for relaxation of upper age limit to exhaust the number of attempts admissible under this rule shall not be permitted in any circumstances”.

3. In the said rules, for “Schedule-II” and “Schedule-III”, the following Schedules shall be substituted, namely:—

“SCHEDULE-II

[See rule -4(3)]

PLAN OF EXAMINATION

The Combined Competitive Recruitment Examinations shall comprise of the following.—

- (A) Preliminary Examination (Objective Type) for the selection of candidates for Main Examination; and
- (B) Main Examination (Written and Interview) for the selection of candidates for the various Services and posts.

A. PRELIMINARY EXAMINATION

The Preliminary Examination shall consist of two papers of Objective Type (multiple choice) questions and carry a maximum of 200 marks each in the subjects set out in section- 1 of SCHEDULE III. This examination is meant to serve as a screening test only. The marks obtained in the Preliminary Examination by the candidates who are declared qualified for admission to the Main Examination shall not be counted for determining their final order of merit. The number of candidates to be admitted to the Main Examination will be as nearly as possible but not more than twelve times of the total number of vacancies to be filled in the year through this examination. Only those candidates who are declared by the Commission to have qualified in the Preliminary Examination in the year shall be called to appear in the Main Examination of that year provided they are otherwise eligible for admission to the Main Examination.

Note I: The Commission shall draw a list of candidates to be qualified for Civil Services (Main) Examination based on the criterion of minimum qualifying marks of 33% in General Studies Paper-II of Civil Services (Preliminary) Examination and total qualifying marks of General Studies Paper-I of Civil Services (Preliminary) Examination as may be determined by the Commission.

Note-II: There shall be negative marking for incorrect answers (as detailed below) for all questions except some of the questions where the negative marking shall be inbuilt in the form of different marks being awarded to the most appropriate and not so appropriate answer for such questions.

- (i) There shall be four alternatives for the answers to every question. For each question for which a wrong answer has been given by the candidate, one-third (0.33) of the marks assigned to that question shall be deducted as penalty.
- (ii) If a candidate gives more than one answer, it shall be treated as a wrong answer even if one of the given answers happen to be correct and there will be same penalty as above for that question.
- (iii) If a question is left blank i.e. no answer is given by the candidate, there shall be no penalty for that question.

B. Main Examination (Written and Interview)
